

About Our Company

SmartSwitch positions itself as a reliable and competitively priced information technology and software development services company. Our mission is to provide our clients with superior products and services that they can rely on at a price to fit any size wallet. In the past, SmartSwitch has built its recognition among the clients. Not only has SmartSwitch saved significant development cost for the clients, but delivered extraordinary value-added services with its elite management and development teams.

SmartSwitch is a global software development & IT consulting Services Company that creates real business value from today's latest digital technologies. SmartSwitch has extensive relationships with the world's leading companies and governments and work with organizations of all sizes-including the Fortune Global 2000 the world's leading companies and deliver integrated solutions that impact the business. We offer software development, implementation, and maintenance services for E-Business (B2C, B2B), Clinical (Database building, Data management), Enterprise (CRM, SCM, ERP) and embedded applications. SmartSwitch onsite/offsite model enables customers to coordinate with an onsite team, while at the same time enjoying the benefits of offsite. Offsite (In-house) Software Development allows companies to easily access Smart Switch talented team of professionals in a convenient and cost-effective environment. We at SmartSwitch understand our customer needs, their current situation and market opportunity. Evaluate smart & feasible solutions and formulate strategy to implement the Smart solutions through Smart people, right Strategy, experience and technology.